

RJB Training Services

Identity/Literature

RJB Training services are one of the fastest growing organisations in and around the London area. Offering a professional, reliable and effective training service to customers large and small at competitive prices with discounts for group bookings.

As a company they are able to deliver a range of industrial, warehouse and safety induction courses, RJB specialise in fork lift truck training offering counterbalance, Reach, fork attachment and conversion courses all under RTITB accreditation .